redm. 29. 1862

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a letter or document, covering the lower half of the page. The text is written on a piece of aged, yellowed paper with a large tear at the top center. The handwriting is dense and somewhat difficult to decipher due to the cursive style and fading. The text appears to be a formal communication, possibly a letter or a report, given the date and the structured nature of the lines.
