

7th 25th October 1910 Constantinople

My dear Mr. ...

I have just received your letter of the 20th and am glad to hear from you. I am well and hope these few lines will find you the same. I have not much news to write at present. The weather here is very hot and dry at the moment. I have been out for a walk in the park today and saw many beautiful flowers. I have also been to the museum and saw some very interesting things. I have not time to write you more at present but will write again soon. Give my love to your mother and father. I am, dear Mr., your affectionate friend, ...

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or letter. The text is written in a dark ink on aged paper and is oriented vertically. The script is dense and difficult to decipher due to its cursive nature and the angle of the page. The text appears to be a continuous block of writing, possibly a letter or a record, covering the entire page.
